Notes and other stuff.

cenc's TLNote Section.

As much as it may surprise you, that was not a typo.

What Inori was trying to tell Koma was, "Ganbarimasu", meaning "I'LL TRY MY BEST". However, somehow she had a slip of tongue and said "Giyanbarimasu", which means "Check my doubles".
Actually it doesn't mean anything. - muge

Now, seeing as both phrases don't have a lot in common in english, I just made muge say "I'll try my best" at least 100 times fast until it sounded like "I'LL TIE MY BEST", so that's what we went with

Oh, and kawaii means cute

IMPORTANT!

muge here. Seeing as cenc was only here to help out for a little bit (7 pages at most), and also seeing as FoOlRulez can't always translate for me, as they have other sweet projects to do, I NEED A TRANSLATOR.
Because right now, there are 5 options for the remaining (9 or so) Hyakko chapters.

1. Me and cenc continue.
We'll be like OLD when we finish this.
This probably means 1 chapter every 4-7ish or more months. That's SLOW slow.
Although we may be able to release the next chapter or 2 while it's summer, but.
Eventually, this will probably lead to choice 3

2. Another translator hops in.
Good option GET. I don't mind changing the "group" name either, if you wish it
Mail me at mugematic[at]gmail.com.

3. Hyakko gets hiatus' or dropped
Bad end, no nice boats. Anywhere.

4. An actual scan group picks this up, so there is a somewhat "set" release date
I don't mind this at all, as long as it's done properly
>Implying I was doing this properly
Probably the best option of the 5.

5. I learn Japanese
Probably not happening, ever.
